A person is eligible to possess if he or she has received a Governor Pardon from the state of record, or a Presidential Pardon or has had his or her firearm rights restored specifically for that crime (or crimes) by the appropriate court per RCW 9.41.040(4) or the equivalent according to the state in which the prohibitor exists. Certificates of Rehabilitation issued by Washington courts per RCW 9.41.040(3) do not restore firearm rights. The restoration must be made under RCW 9.41.040(4).

Local laws and ordinances on firearms are preempted by state laws and must be consistent with state law. Although state and local laws do not differ, federal law and state law in regard to the possession of firearms may differ. You may be prosecuted in federal court if you are prohibited by federal law from possession of a firearm. A state license is not a defense to a federal prosecution.

Washington State Prohibitive Crimes/Convictions:

- Convictions or adjudications for any felony offense in this state or elsewhere. Felony means any felony offense under the laws of this state or of any federal or out-of-state offense that is comparable to a felony offense under the laws of Washington
- Prohibitive crimes “Dismissed” after a guilty plea, or a guilty verdict, or a Deferred Sentence, or a Deferred Disposition, and/or Suspended Imposition of Sentence may still be prohibitive
- An Order to Vacate a Conviction does NOT automatically reinstate firearm rights. Rights must be restored per RCW 9.41.040(4) or per the state law in which the conviction occurred
- Crimes involving Domestic Violence that occurred on or after July 1, 1993 are prohibitive when they meet the definition cited within RCW 26.50.010 and/or RCW 10.99.020
These include:
 - Assault in the fourth degree
 - Coercion
 - Stalking
 - Reckless endangerment
 - Criminal Trespass in the first degree
 - Violation of the provisions of a protection order or no-contact order that restrains or excludes the person from a residence
 - Harassment (only if occurred on or after 06/07/2018)

Federal law prohibits the following person from receiving a concealed pistol license or a firearm of any kind:

- Anyone who is an unlawful user of, or is addicted to, narcotics or other controlled substances (please note: Although the use of marijuana and the possession of marijuana as less than 40 grams is legal in the state of Washington, possession, admission of use, or being under the influence of marijuana when contacted by a law enforcement officer will cause you to be federally prohibited for at least 1 (one) year from date of contact)
