The Committee discussed their role at the June 29th Link the World Event. Their primary job will be recruiting the artists. It was agreed that all items had to be self made and that there would be an application process. Applications would be submitted and reviewed at the May ACLAC meeting. Brian will create the application and send to the Committee this month.

Tani Rae mentioned an event she attended in Olympia at the Heart Sparkle Players Playback Theatre and the Story Oly. Jim, via a letter read by Bruce, inquired about whether land owned by the Port in North SeaTac Park could possibly be used as an Artist Village. Brian stated the issues of the different leases at North SeaTac Park, between the Port and the City were an issue that was currently being looked at we could inquire if the Committee wanted to pursue.

Committee members that attended the 4Culture Listening session on March 4th at the SeaTac Community Center said it was fascinating and an interesting night of conversation.
